Samuel R. Williams, a well known Southern gentleman, of Memphis, is worrying along at the Merchants.

W. B. Shattuck, General Passenger Agent of the A. & C. W., is the best looking railroad man in the city.

Hon. Sam. F. Hunt, who is in New York in consultation with the leading Democrats there, is expected home to-morrow.

Sam. V. Reid, Esq., deserves credit for the splendid display of Cork at the Exposition. That's a good way to act the hog.

W. P. Holton, Chief Clerk of the Gardner House, Chicago, has mysteriously disappeared. He has an uncle residing in this city.

The maddest man seen on Vine street to-day was the well-dressed chap to whose coat tail a rooster's comb had been pinned, dirty, faded flag.

Wirt Dexter, Esq., formerly of this city, now of Chicago, is the leading legal card engaged by the defense in the Ward will case in Detroit.

Joseph H. Rean, and others of our city, have taken precautions against a short crop of a very useful article of diet. They have incorporated "The Bean Manufacturing Company."

Amusements.

THE GRAND OPERA HOUSE.—Quite a good audience was assembled at this house last evening. "Bulls and Bears" seemed to be as popular with the same strangers who are in nightly attendance as with our own citizens. The company develops stronger and better points with each appearance, and several of the "smaller people" are beginning to display abilities of no mean order. Matinee this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

WOOD'S THEATER.—"Ben McCullough," with Mr. Byron in the title role, drew a good audience at Wood's last evening. The play was well mounted, the support good, and the star all that could be desired, and as a consequence "Ben McCullough" was a success. Several of the company, among whom was Mr. Russell Rogers, acquitted themselves with credit. Matinee to-day at 2 o'clock. Monday evening for the first time, Mr. Byron as "Bank Stocks."

THE NATIONAL.—There was a fair audience at this house last evening, who were preceded with a fine programme of varieties. The entire company acquitted themselves with credit. A Grand Matinee is announced at this house at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

GULICK'S GRAND CENTRAL.—The attendance at this house was moderately good last evening, though the entertainment was one of unusual excellence. Among the many new favorites, Mr. Charles Benedict probably ranks first, being quite good in the "negro business."

Col. Dan. Rice will open his celebrated horse show in this city on Monday of next week. The entry lot on Race street, between Fourth and Fifth, having been secured by the Colonel for the purpose. Besides the Broncho horses, the world-renowned Excelsior, the blind horse, will be among the attractions.

McEvoy's Hibernian and the Morris Comedy Company have leased Mozart Hall for the opening week, where they will give their matchless entertainments, each night and upon Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

42,963—Jeremiah W. Manning et al., vs. Henry Wilkerson.

42,967—Larrie L. Jones vs. T. D. Jones.

The following were entered in Superior Court:

32,043—G. Jao. Eberhardt vs. Espy, Heidelberg and Co.

32,044—Wm. Fletcher vs. F. L. Burkhardt.

32,044—A. & J. Trumaine & Co. vs. Henry Stewart et al.

32,045—Sauce vs. Thos. Lucas et al.

A CONVENTION of delegates from the principal business cities of this country will assemble in this city on the 28th of October to confer upon the means of restoring specie payments and to give expression to some ideas on the revenue system. The convention was called by a meeting held in Richmond on the 4th of September. New York has appointed twenty delegates, and has appointed delegates from other cities, and delegates to the Board of Trade, Chambers of Commerce and other bodies to call meetings of citizens and appoint delegates.

The petition, presented to the Board of Aldermen yesterday afternoon, asking the privilege to construct a street railroad on the following streets in Corryville: Commencing on Ohio Avenue to Callan street, thence to Vine street, thence to Hammond street, on Hammond street to St. Clair street, on St. Clair to Ludlow Avenue, thence to the northern corporation line, was referred to the Committee on Street Railroads. Also an ordinance to grant Route No. 13 in extension of their line, as follows: From Broadway along Sixth to Vine, thence to Fourth, along Fourth to Race, along Race to Fifth, along Fifth to Main, along Main to Sixth, thence, with a double track, along Sixth to Broadway.

DRAMATIC AND MUSICAL NOTES.

Wallack's is running a new play, called "Our Boys."

Lame, fat and lazy, is what is said of Leecoq, the author.

"Girofle-Girofla" has been produced in Barcelona, where it is a pronounced success.

The Fifth Avenue is playing a juvenile opera troupe in the comic opera, "Robinson Crusoe."

Miss Genevieve Ward will sing in this country this season, under the management of Strakosch.

Rose Wood and Lew Morrison are doing the small cities of Pennsylvania very successfully this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Florence are playing at the Park Theater in their new piece, "The Almighty Dollar."

The engagement of the celebrated Italian tragedian, Signor Rossi, and that of Edwin Booth open upon the same night.

Joseph Jefferson begins an engagement as "Rip Van Winkle" at the Princess Theater, London, on November 1st.

J. T. Raymond is now in the fourth week of his engagement as "Col. Sellers" at the Union Square Theater, New York.

"Clancarty," Tom Taylor's historical drama, is now in its third week at McVicker's in Chicago, with Edwin Adams as the star.

John McCullough will shortly return from his European trip, in order to fill an engagement at Louisville on the 27th of this month.

Lamilla Urso, with her new combination, will begin the campaign the middle of October. She has engagements to the middle of May.

Madame Christine Nilsson will appear very shortly at the Italian Theater in St. Petersburg in a new opera, written for her by Arthur Sullivan.

35,000 people have visited the new play, "Around the World in Eighty Days," during its two weeks' run at the Academy of Music, in New York.

Barry Sullivan has not met with favor on all sides, as was expected. There are various critics who deny him a place among the list of the "Great Hamlets."

Miss Augusta Chambers, formerly of Wood's Theater of this city, was, at last accounts, playing in the Shakespearean drama with Lawrence Barrett, at Piper's Opera-house, in Virginia City.

Millie Florence Duparo, who will shortly make her American debut at the Lyceum as "Fortunio" in "Madame L'Archiduc," hails from the Palace Royal Theater, Paris, and is described as a beautiful brunette, with bewitching eyes.

Madame Lucca is contemplating one more tour through Germany, after which she will retire to private life. For her prospective tour she has contracted with the impresario R. Marelli, who has guaranteed her $100 per night for each performance in which she takes part.

Mr. George Honey, the popular comedian of the Prince of Wales Theater, London, will, it is said, appear during his engagement at the Globe, in two of his famous original characters, viz.: "Our Mr. Jenkins" in James Albert's "Two Roses," and "Eccles" in Robertson's "Cante."

Mrs. Albertine, who formerly traveled with Frank Chanfrau, and afterwards, while playing in Australia, became blind and penniless, has been, through the kindness of Mr. Chanfrau, John Brougham and Mrs. Lander, re-elected a member of the Dramatic Fund Association, they paying the amount of her dues.

The Heine Concert Company and J. F. Rudolph, basso and humorist, will make a Western tour during the season.

They are booked for New England for October and November, with fine prospects. Miss Laura Schirmer is the soprano, and is winning golden opinions wherever the company appears.

The Mendelssohn Quintette Club begin a nine weeks' Western tour the 27th of this month. This club has been augmented by the engagement of Mr. C. S. Allen, former leader of the Beethoven Quintette Club (now disbanded). It now has six solo performers. Miss Fannie Keilgoy is re-engaged as vocalist.

Malinshe, one of the most renowned scenic artists in the country, late superintendent of the fresco department of Altwal and Co.'s large paint establishment in Chicago, is now busily engaged at Wood's Theater in getting up the magnificent scenery with which it is proposed to open the "Naiad Queen," at this house, upon the 27th of this month.

Miss Teresa Tilens has contracted with Strakosch for a season in America, and will sail from Europe on the 18th of the present month, opening at Stearns Hall October 4. She is described as a large and handsome woman, resembling very much the late Parepa Rosa. She was born at Hamburg in 1834, and made her debut at the age of 22 in the city of Vienna in the character of "Donna Anna" in "Don Giovanni," which was at once declared a great success.

LEGAL—No. 430—COURT OF COMMON PLEAS, HAMILTON COUNTY, OHIO: Lavinia G. Newton, plaintiff, against Richard D. Wert, Eliza Jane Willis, Joseph R. Wert, E. X. Wert, Asher Wert, Polly Myer, John Wert, Sarah E. Wert, George W. Wert, Emma C. Wert, Susan M. Wert (a minor), defendants.

The above-named defendants will take notice that on the 10th day of June, 1875, the above-named plaintiff filed her petition in the Court of Common Pleas of Hamilton county, Ohio, against the said defendants, setting forth that said plaintiff is the owner of the legal title to, and in possession of the real estate below described, and is entitled to the peaceable possession and legal title to said premises. Said property is described as follows: "Commencing at the northwest corner of a lot conveyed to Peter Murphy by Norris S. Knight, by deed dated November 20th, 1866, recorded January 7th, 1867, in Book 335, page 627; thence south with the west line of said Murphy's lot thirteen and sixty hundredths (13 60/100) chains; thence west three and eighty-five hundredths (3 85/100) chains; thence north with the division fence now existing, thirteen and sixty hundredths (13 60/100) chains to hedge; thence east three and eighty-five hundredths (3 85/100) chains to the place of beginning; containing five and one-quarter (5 1/4) acres of land, more or less, and situated in the village of College Hill, Hamilton county, Ohio; subject to all roads and sidewalks, and to all taxes except those due and payable December 30th, 1871; in which said property defendants set up and claim an estate and interest. The said plaintiff therefore prays that the said defendants may be compelled to show their title and interest, and if at the same time determined to be null and void as against the said title of the plaintiff. And the said defendants are notified that they are required to appear and answer and petition on or before the 10th day of September, 1875.

PIANOS, ORGANS, &c.
CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

It is to be lamented that unscrupulous persons are still able, despite the strict agency of the laws, to trade upon the reputation of respectable firms. It is always where success is greatest that this is practiced. Thus DECKER BROTHERS' PIANO has been made an object upon which this fraud is imposed upon to a very large extent—by the ingenious alteration of a letter in the firm name, or some slight subterfuge, making prosecution impossible; thereby trading upon our name, with worthless instruments, doing serious injury to the reputation of our house. It is necessary, therefore, to employ the closest scrutiny to detect these counterfeits.

DECKER BROTHERS, 33 Union Square, New York
are the only owners of patents issued by the Government of the United States to any person by the name of Decker for the within improvements in Piano-Fortes. In all GENUINE DECKER BROTHERS' PIANOS the following words appear, cast upon the iron plate on the inner left-hand side of the instruments: DECKER BROTHERS' PATENT, June 2, 1863.

As imitators have sought to palm off inferior or nearly worthless instruments on the public under the name of "Decker" or Decker somebody else's Pianos, all persons are cautioned to observe that this proof of genuineness is on every Piano precisely as shown above.

WE DO NOT MAKE, AND NEVER MADE, ANY INSTRUMENTS WITHOUT THIS STAMP.
In proof of the facts submitted, we beg to offer the following letter of guarantee and indorsement from some of the most eminent artists in the world:

LETTER.
In justice to the fair fame of a most eminent house, and also to correct certain erroneous impressions that are reported to exist in some musical communities, the undersigned take pleasure in stating that, to the best of their knowledge and belief, the MESSRS. DECKER BROTHERS, of No. 33 Union Square, New York, are the only Piano-Forte manufacturers of that name (or of any similar style of firm designation) whose instruments are of the first class, or who manufacture Concert Grands. We have never used, either in public or private, any "Decker" Pianos other than those of the above mentioned and justly celebrated firm.
